Petition
of Rebecca P. Allen for removal of Trees - July 14. 1886.

The undersigned respectfully petitions the Cambridge City Government for leave to cut down as soon as may be, two trees in front of her dwelling house on Berkeley St. The neighbours all agree with the undersigned that the trees need pruning up and the health of the ^{residents on the} street would also be improved by removing two of the trees -

All of which is respectfully submitted
to his honor, the Mayor, and the City Government of Cambridge,
on this Tenth day
of July -

Eighteen hundred and Eighty six -

Rebecca D. Allen.
