Sheila,

On behalf of my brothers and sisters, I would like to take the time to thank you for your kindness and concern upon my father's death in October. The proclamation that you arranged in my father's memory was very meaningful to myself and my brothers and sisters and helped to lessen the grief at a difficult time. Our gratitude can also be extended to the officers of the Cambridge Traffic Department whose presence for one of their own was touching to us all. Lastly, the people at the Retirement Board and the Personnel Dept. were very helpful and responsive to our needs and questions. This was especially true of Joan Kelly at the Retirement Board. Please extend our thanks to all of the above people whose kind words and thoughts were a welcome respite from the sorrow.
