The City Council
City Hall
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02139

Gentlemen - and Ladies:

1. Although a resident of this once fine City since birth (120 Henry Street), 1913, as a firearm owner since 1925 - one of another harassed and oppressed minority - no doubt my thoughts, one way or another concerning any subject very well may be of little interest.

However:

For once, I agree with Councilor Walsh in his concern that the position of Police Commissioner ... the need for which I do not understand ... may not be filled by a police officer who has come up through the ranks. (Cambridge CHRONICLE, 8 Nov 90.)

Why not let The Public decide?

2. What is to be done, concerning the Harvard University Land-Grabbing Agglomeration?!

Sincerely,

Earl L. Harrington

Up to 77y 9m so far,
with Late Middle Age
in the far distance.

Comm. from Earl C. Harrington, 79
Martin Street, relative to the position of Police Commissioner.

In City Council,
