Dear Mr. Reeves:

I wanted you to be among the first to know that during Black History Month The Jamaican Progressive Society is bringing the sound, mood and feel of Jamaica and the Caribbean to Boston. Join us as we chase your winter blues and warm your hearts on Valentine's Day February 14, 1997 at our annual Gala Valentine's Ball, Boston Marriott Hotel, Copley Plaza.

Special guest speaker will be the recently appointed Jamaican Commissioner of Police Francis Forbes. Come enjoy great music by Dion Knibb and the Agitators. Live and direct from Ocho Rios, Negril and Montego Bay, Jamaican Songbird Judi Emanuel in Cabaret. Special lighting and recorded sound by "16 Track Audio". The music will be a beautiful blend of Reggae, Ska, Calypso, R&B Pop and the latest contemporary especially mixed with lovers in mind. An exciting blend of old and new. You will enjoy yourself so much you'll think you just took a trip to the Caribbean.

Word of Commissioner Forbes' visit is generating tremendous excitement and interest. One Boston resident who makes frequent visits to Jamaica commented: "in one night I'll be able to enjoy a great meal at a first class hotel, great entertainment, great ambiance, a romantic night with the special lady in my life and rub elbows with the Chief of Security for the entire island; not a bad deal."

For more information or to charge tickets by Mastercard or Visa please call us at 617-427-6452. I look forward to meeting you at the Ball.

Sincerely,

Volda Officer
Director of Public Relations
