Books on tape

Cambridge residents Rebecca Gallo, Dejan Mircevski and Mimi Wan were recently certified as volunteer readers at Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic's Boston Unit. To achieve this, they completed training in digital audio recording at RFB&D's Cambridge studio, and also produced a tape demonstrating that they had mastered the conventions of reading textbooks for students with visual impairments or learning disabilities.
For more information about volunteer opportunities or membership, call RFB&D's Boston Unit at 617-577-1111, ext. 17.

Simmons superstars

Cambridge residents Paula Mills and Emily Stewart were named to the dean's list at Simmons College in Boston for the spring 2001 semester.

The quintessential Cantabrigian

Denise Simmons, who is currently running for City Council, is also a wonderful justice of the peace. At our wedding this past Saturday, Denise Simmons officiated our ceremony. Having her there was like having the spirit of Cambridge at our wedding.
Having grown up in Cambridge, I think of it as one of the few places in the world that embodies a down-to-earth and spiritual quality. Denise, whom many of you know from her many years serving on the Cambridge School Committee, is, in my mind, the quintessential Cantabri-
