IN CITY COUNCIL

May 22, 1989

COUNCILLOR RUSSELL

RESOLVED: That the City Manager confer with the Commissioner of Health and Hospitals and the Building Commissioner to test the air quality in the Miller River Apartments where the air vents have not been cleaned and are a source of irritation to the residents who have made many complaints concerning the lack of cleaning and also to test other senior citizen apartment complexes to ensure that our elderly citizens who are in some cases frail are breathing quality air and report back to the City Council as soon as possible.
