COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
COUNCILLOR MYERS
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: In 1981, World Food Day was established by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, to create global awareness of hunger issues; and

WHEREAS: World Food Day is observed around the world as an occasion to call attention to the continuing tragedy of hunger on every continent and the challenge facing us all to respond; and

WHEREAS: World Food Day provides an excellent opportunity for each of us to exert leadership in an area to all our citizens, especially at a time when food policies and programs for children, the aged, and the poor are an increasing problem for many of us; and

WHEREAS: The U.S. Conference of Mayors has been a member of the National Committee for World Food Day since 1983; and since that time, a number of cities have marked the day with proclamations, meetings with citizen groups, and participation in civic events of many kinds; and

WHEREAS: This day is increasingly recognized as a natural focus for public and media attention on the whole range of food, nutrition and health issues-issues that enable us to reach out to the citizens of our communities, both to serve them and to know their wishes; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge has gone on record, philosophically and financially, in support of human services which attempt to ease the pain of hunger and promote solutions; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council does hereby proclaim October 16, 1995 as "World Food Day" in the City of Cambridge and urge all the people of our community to join me in working with emergency food programs in their neighborhoods which provide relief to the hungry, and urge all residents to encourage broad public discussion of relevant solutions to this tragedy in our community, our state, our nation and our world.
