Mayor Alfred E. Vellucchi
Cambridge City Hall
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02139

Dear Mayor Vellucchi,

I would like to bring to your attention an employee of the City of Cambridge whose behavior is to be commended.

My wife, who teaches at Cambridge High and Latin, missed her wallet on November 30. On December 1, John Rose of 182 Third Street, an employee of the D.P.W. found her wallet in the trash on Broadway near the school. He went out of his way on his own time to see that the wallet was returned with all credit cards and papers intact. He refused any reward.

In these times when city services and employees are often maligned, we felt that you should be aware that you have an employee whose performance deserves recognition.

Sincerely,
