Please take notice that I intend to erect a building on the North Westly Corner of Main & Prospect Streets in this City extending from the intersection of the North line of Main Street with the West line of Prospect Street as far as the Stone Block on Main St. belonging to the Union Hall Association 100 feet more or less ^{and parallel with} the of a depth along Prospect Street of Seventy-five feet. The said Structure is to be of brick. The numbers on the Street are not known to me but extend from #1 to #5 or there abouts. Subscribed I am the owner of the land above described

Paul L. Cutter

I, S. L. Cutler the subscriber of the annexed notice, referring thereto, in consideration of the lateness of the season for building, and of the importance of time therein will ask immediate reference or other proper disposal of said notice & waiver of the 15 days required by the Ordinances.

I will also state that I supposed I had obtained the necessary permission & given the necessary notice longer than than three weeks since & this present notice is given to cure mistakes if any have been made
