WHEREAS: Each year, the City of Cambridge has paused on the eleventh of November, the anniversary of the armistice which concluded World War I, to remember and honor our veterans of military service; and

WHEREAS: We do so in proud and grateful recognition of the hardships and sacrifices demanded from and faithfully accepted by the millions of men and women who have defended our land in war and in peace; and

WHEREAS: This year, we pay tribute to all of our veterans on the seventy-eighth anniversary of Armistice Day; and

WHEREAS: The willingness of our brave veterans to give freely and unselfishly of themselves, including their lives, in defense of our democratic principles, has given our great country and much of the world the security we enjoy; and

WHEREAS: Though our losses have been considerable -- more than one million have died in military service -- Veteran's Day is not intended to be a mournful time, but rather a time to rejoice. It is an opportunity to recount the mettle and indomitable spirit of those who humbled and crushed the forces of hostility and oppression. It is a time to declare our gratitude to those who give heart and inspiration to the convictions that keep America and other nations free; and

WHEREAS: On this Veteran's Day, we let our veterans know that their service is not forgotten, that their sacrifices are appreciated, and that we salute our defenders for whom there is still no accounting, and will never forget the men and women of past wars; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution on behalf of the entire City Council.
