Dear Margaret,

On behalf of the Harvard Square Business Association, I wish to request permission of the Cambridge City Council to hold our 10th annual Harvard Square MayFair on Sunday, May 2, 1993 (with a rain date two weeks hence -- skipping Mother's Day -- scheduled for Sunday, May 16, 1993) between the hours of 9 a.m. and 7 p.m.* to allow for setup and ~~dispar~~ cleanup before and after the actual festival between 12 noon and 6 p.m. Once again, the Business Association plans a non-alcoholic public festival with international (free) entertainment for all ages and with kiddie rides and other activities planned for the youngsters who come to MayFair with their parents and friends.

This year, the United Nations has proclaimed as the Year of the Indigenous People. In sponsoring our MayFair, we will emphasize the international character of our spring festival in Harvard Square through selection of performers, vendors, and general publicity. We trust you will feel welcome to attend the MayFair this year. Per usual, of course, we as Association will provide ample supervision, security, public facilities, and leave the Square spotless after it's over.

Please let me know as soon as you have decided to grant your permission for ~~hus to on s on l a e~~ the MayFair in Harvard Square on May 2 (or May 16), 1993. I very much appreciate your cooperation with our non-profit association at this time.

Sincerely yours,

Sally Alcorn
Executive Director

P.s. Detours around the area should be set up at 9 a.m. and posted the night before accordingly, so that traffic can be rerouted onto Church St. (north) and Mt. Auburn (south side of the Square during hours of operation (9 a.m.- 7 p.m.).
