Duehay

That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to direct the appropriate city departments to take the proper action to ensure that cars and trucks not park on the sidewalk on Story Street, a long standing practice both on weekends and weekdays which often blocks pedestrian access to the sidewalk, and further that the City Manager report back to the City Council when this has been accomplished.

Duehay

That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to ensure that all government jurisdictions (e.g. city, state, MBTA, MDC) and all utility companies are required to remove graffiti immediately from the public property they control;

Further, if the City Manager finds that he lacks the legal authority to order such removal, that he be requested to develop an ordinance requiring the removal of graffiti from public places for the consideration of the city council
