How Do You Spell Hope?

by Melinda Lopez

Underground Railway Theater, in collaboration with the Arlington Center for the Arts, presents a new play celebrating the power of reading and the culture of the book.

How Do You Spell Hope? weaves together three inspiring stories of courage and compassion: the historical narratives of Frederick Douglass, a teenage star athlete who overcomes dyslexia, and the struggles of a contemporary immigrant family. The set is a giant theatrical pop-up book—the turn of each page reveals puppet stages, actor's entrances, shadow puppet screens and much more!
