COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL

WHEREAS: Since the tragic earthquake of 1988, the children of Armenia have suffered through critical shortages of basic foodstuffs which are required for proper nutrition; and

WHEREAS: The Armenian Children's Milk Fund was organized shortly after the earthquake to respond to the need of the children of that nation for infant formula and milk; and

WHEREAS: In just five years, the Armenian Children's Milk Fund has airlifted and distributed over 400 tons of lifesaving supplies, thus helping to feed thousands of children; and

WHEREAS: The Baroness Caroline Anne Cox of Queensbury, noted humanitarian and Deputy Speaker of the House of Lords of Great Britain, has been a leader in publicizing the plight of the Armenian people; and

WHEREAS: The Baroness Caroline Anne Cox of Queensbury has enlisted the Zurich-based charity Christian Solidarity International to provide transportation of humanitarian aid; and

WHEREAS: Through her efforts, sixteen such flights have taken place delivering medical equipment, supplies, medicine, powdered milk, baby formula and food to people of Armenia; and

WHEREAS: The Baroness Caroline Anne Cox of Queensbury is presently visiting Cambridge and attending a banquet in her honor sponsored by The Armenian Children's Milk Fund on behalf of the children of Armenia; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby welcome Baroness Caroline Anne Cox of Queensbury to the City of Cambridge; and be it further

RESOLVED: That This Cambridge City Council does hereby offer its sincerest gratitude to Baroness Caroline Anne Cox of Queensbury for her tireless and entirely selfless efforts on behalf of the victimized children of Armenia.
