OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS

September 30, 1933

To the Honorable, the City Council

I return herewith without my approval the order of the City Council of September 19, 1933 "that the Chief of Police and his Honor the Mayor reassign ten of the police officers now investigating for the Welfare Department to patrol duty", etc., which I veto for the following reason: Assignment of police officers is an administrative, and not a legislative, function.

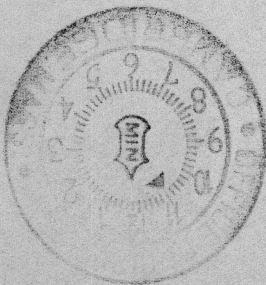

Yours respectfully,

Richard M. Russell

Mayor
