IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN,

January 14, 1896.

Whereas, By a resolve and order approved December 24, 1895, certain parcels of land therein described were taken for the widening of Boylston street and Harvard square, and the same were laid out as a public way of the City of Cambridge, and as a part of said Boylston street and Harvard square, it is therfore

Ordered: That due notice be given to Maria S. Porter (Heirs of), Martha P. Gregory (Heirs of), William Read (Devises of), Owners Unknown, Dennis J. O'Brien, John McLean, Richard Beckett (Heirs of), Owners Unknown, Henry C. Rand and others, West End Street Railway Company, Ellen Kramer, Mary A. Delaney, Frederick W. Rogers (Trustee), William J. Edwards, William B. Stearns (Heirs of), James Elliott, Fannie A. Elliott, Owners Unknown, and all other persons interested as owners, proprietors, tenants, occupants, or otherwise, in said land, that they cut off, pull down, remove, and carry away all buildings, erections, and obstructions of every sort standing on and projecting over the lines of said Boylston street and Harvard square as established by the resolve and order aforesaid, or move and set back the same to the said lines, and vacate and surrender the land and premises taken as aforesaid, on or before the first day of July now next ensuing.

And in default thereof, the City of Cambridge by its Superintendent of Streets will forthwith enter upon said land, and cause all buildings, erections and obstructions standing on and projecting over the lines of said Boylston street and Harvard square, as established by the resolve and order aforesaid, to be cut off, pulled down, removed and carried away, or sold in such manner as said city shall deem expedient, or to be moved and set back to said line, and the land to be vacated and surrendered to said city.
