

Report of a Committee.

City of Cambridge
In Common Council July 30, 1867.

The Committee to whom was referred the petition of D. H. Thurston and others for the acceptance of Elm Street, have considered the same and recommend the acceptance of so much of the above street as lies between Broadway and Hampshire street, whenever the petitioners furnish the City a plan shewing that part of the street to be forty (40) feet wide, and cause the same to be graded to the satisfaction of the Superintendent of Streets.

For the Committee

Alvaro Bloodgood.
