

City of Cambridge.

In the year one thousand eight hundred and forty seven. —

An Ordinance,
For the suppression of disturbances on the Lord's Day. —

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Cambridge, as follows: —

Sec. 1. Every person, who shall, on the Lord's Day, race, or ride, or drive, for trial of speed, any horse or other animal of the horse kind, on any street or highway in the City, or who shall, by the careless, unruly, or disorderly riding or driving of any such horse or other animal, whether harnessed to any gig, chaise, or other vehicle, or not, or by noises, shouts or outcries, on any such street or highway, disturb the public peace, or ^{shall} molest or endanger any person in going to or ~~returning~~ returning from ~~the~~ public worship, ~~of gods~~, or shall obstruct, annoy or interrupt any person in the free and quiet enjoyment of his religious rights and privileges, shall, upon conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a sum not less than five dollars nor more than twenty dollars. —

Sect. 2. Every person, found in any street or highway in the city, on the Lord's Day, committing any of the offences mentioned in the preceding section, may be apprehended by any constable, police officer, or any other person, by order of the Mayor or any Justice of the Peace within the County of Middlesex, without written warrant, and kept in custody not exceeding twenty four hours, by or at the expiration of which time, such person shall be taken before some Justice of the Peace, and proceeded against in the manner provided by law. —

In Common Council May 31. 1847
passed & be enrolled

C. L. Newell Clerk

In Board of Aldermen May 31. 1847.

Passed to be enrolled.

L. R. Paige, City Clerk.

An Ordinance 4

For the suppression of disturbances on the Lord's Day.

City of Cambridge
May 31 1847 correctly
drawn for the Committee on bills in second reading A. H. Mansury

Correctly drawn.

S. T. Pawlett
for Comtee on Ordinances