

Cambridge, Mass., November 13th, 1899.

TO THE HONORABLE THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

WHEREAS, at the time of the acceptance of Nutting Place as a public way, your petitioner, The University Press, John Wilson & Son, Incorporated, entered into an agreement with the city in which agreement said University Press undertook to pay such part of the expense incurred by the city, both in damages to abutters and in costs of grading and laying out said public way, as your Honorable Body should decide to be just and equitable.

AND WHEREAS, the said way has now been laid out and the expense thereof and amount of damages to the abutters definitely ascertained;

AND WHEREAS, said University Press has already paid the aforesaid damages, and other expenses incurred by the city, with exception of the amount expended in the grading and construction of said way;

NOW, THEREFORE, your petitioner, the said University Press, respectfully prays that ^ahearing may be granted it in order that your Honorable Body may determine what part, if any, of the remainder of said expense should be borne by said petitioner.

Respectfully submitted,

UNIVERSITY PRESS, JOHN WILSON & SON

The Joint Standing

Committee on Roads and Bridges,

to which was referred the petition of the University Press for a hearing in order to determine what part if any of the cost of grading and construction of Nutting Place shall be borne by the petitioners,

Reports

That your Committee has heard the petitioners, and inasmuch as it was a matter of agreement that the University Press should pay the expense of laying out Nutting Place, no further action is necessary in the matter.

For the Committee,

John T. Shea
