Dear Mr. Healy:

I have for acknowledgment your letter of February 13th in which you transmit a copy of an order adopted by the City Council of Cambridge, Massachusetts, on February 9, 1970, requesting the presence of the Congressional Delegation from Cambridge, at a future meeting of the City Council to discuss the future of the NASA Electronics Research Center in the City of Cambridge.

Sincerely,

A large, stylized handwritten signature in black ink, likely belonging to John W. McCormack, is written over the word "Sincerely,". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping underline that extends to the left.
