IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN,

September 24th, 1895.

Resolved: That the public necessity and convenience require that Rockwell street, a private way, so-called, extending from River street to Pleasant street, should be laid out as a public way of the City of Cambridge,

It is therefore

Ordered:

That a strip of land thirty (30) feet in width, between River street and Pleasant street, included between the red lines as shown upon a plan as "Rockwell street for Acceptance", drawn by W. A. Mason & Son, Surveyors, dated June 10, 1895, and filed in the office of the City Engineer of said City, - be and hereby is taken for public use and laid out as a public street, and the grade thereof is hereby established in accordance with the red line upon the profile of said street which is included in and is a part of said plan.

Ordered:

That no compensation be allowed for the land so taken as aforesaid, the owners of said land having duly released the same to the City of Cambridge.
