Bridges, on sundry petitions for brick sidewalks -

Leaved to night draw,

Sept. 6. 1882

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Cambridge,

The undersigned, owners and residents, representing every estate abutting on the north side of Sacramento Street between North Avenue and Oxford Street in said Cambridge (with the exception of Dr. Henry Thayer's at the corner of Sacramento St. and North Avenue) having, several years ago, laid brick sidewalks, at their own expense, in front of their respective estates, respectfully request your Honorable Board to cause a brick sidewalk to be laid in front of said Thayer's estate, as a public convenience; the condition of the walk in front of said Thayer's estate during the winter and spring being very disagreeable to the large number of ladies and school children who are obliged to pass over it.

And your petitioners will ever pray &c

William H. Neal. 23
