MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN

WHEREAS: On Monday, November 5, 1993, the Longfellow Elementary School students in Ms. Cyr's 5th grade class invited the Mayor to visit their classroom; and

WHEREAS: Ms. Cyr's 5th grade class informed the Mayor of the importance of the Longfellow courtyard as their only playground and recreation area; and

WHEREAS: Ms. Cyr's 5th grade class is concerned about the unshoveled snow which prevents students from using the courtyard for recess during the winter; and

WHEREAS: As students in our school system and young citizens of Cambridge, Ms. Cyr's 5th graders have brought to our attention an issue which affects the quality of their school day; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby request the City Manager to notify the Department of Public Works and the Facilities-Maintenance Department of Cambridge Public Schools to combine their efforts to ensure that snow is removed promptly from the Longfellow courtyard during the winter so that Longfellow students can continue to enjoy the use of their courtyard.

In City Council December 13, 1993.
