

City of Cambridge

22.

IN CITY COUNCIL

October 17, 1994

COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR BORN
MAYOR REEVES
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU
COUNCILLOR WALSH

WHEREAS: Prevention of domestic violence is one of the hottest issues and a major health hazard, with a great deal of energy and effort being made on education, support and enforcement; and

WHEREAS: Domestic violence affects people of all ages, including teenage relationships, and fatal attractions are always a potential; and

WHEREAS: The Commonwealth has enacted new laws criminalizing "stalking"; and

WHEREAS: It has recently been reported (see attached column) that member(s) of Harvard University's administration failed and/or refused to recognize, report and/or assist in a stalking case involving a teenager that was in their care and possibly they may have obstructed a criminal investigation; and

WHEREAS: College campuses are potential areas for domestic violence; and

WHEREAS: It is incumbent upon all of us to help eradicate domestic violence and to assist victims; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager is requested in conjunction with the Police Commissioner, police superintendent in charge of the investigative division and the police department's domestic violence liaison, to meet with representatives of Harvard University's administration to insure that a similar situation does not occur again; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager is requested, in conjunction with representatives of the police department and other city agencies, to prepare and implement a training on domestic violence for administrators of all colleges, universities and secondary schools in the City.

In City Council October 17, 1994.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury,
City Clerk

221

October 17, 1994

COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN

WHEREAS: Prevention of domestic violence is one of the hottest issues and a major health hazard, with a great deal of energy and effort being made on education, support and enforcement; and

WHEREAS: Domestic violence affects people of all ages, including teenage relationships, and fatal attractions are always a potential; and

WHEREAS: The Commonwealth has enacted new laws criminalizing "stalking;" and

WHEREAS: It has recently been reported (see attached column) that member(s) of Harvard University's administration failed and/or refused to recognize, report and/or assist in a stalking case involving a teenager that was in their care and possibly they may have obstructed a criminal investigation;

WHEREAS: College campuses are potential areas for domestic violence; and

WHEREAS: It is incumbent upon all of us to help eradicate domestic violence and to assist victims. Now therefore it be

ORDERED: That the City Manager is requested in conjunction with the Police Commissioner, police superintendent in charge of the investigative division and the police department's domestic violence liaison, to meet with representatives of Harvard University's administration to insure that a similar situation does not occur again; and it be further

ORDERED: That the City Manager is requested, in conjunction with representatives of the police department and other city agencies, to prepare and implement a training on domestic violence for administrators of all colleges, universities and secondary schools in the city.

City of Cambridge

22.

IN CITY COUNCIL

October 17, 1994

COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN

WHEREAS: Prevention of domestic violence is one of the hottest issues and a major health hazard, with a great deal of energy and effort being made on education, support and enforcement; and

WHEREAS: Domestic violence affects people of all ages, including teenage relationships, and fatal attractions are always a potential; and

WHEREAS: The Commonwealth has enacted new laws criminalizing "stalking"; and

WHEREAS: It has recently been reported (see attached column) that member(s) of Harvard University's administration failed and/or refused to recognize, report and/or assist in a stalking case involving a teenager that was in their care and possibly they may have obstructed a criminal investigation; and

WHEREAS: College campuses are potential areas for domestic violence; and

WHEREAS: It is incumbent upon all of us to help eradicate domestic violence and to assist victims; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager is requested in conjunction with the Police Commissioner, police superintendent in charge of the investigative division and the police department's domestic violence liaison, to meet with representatives of Harvard University's administration to insure that a similar situation does not occur again; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager is requested, in conjunction with representatives of the police department and other city agencies, to prepare and implement a training on domestic violence for administrators of all colleges, universities and secondary schools in the City.

Born, Revo, Russell, Tormey
Triantafellow, Walsh

CM-353

Consent Order #22
Councillor Sullivan re; Training on Domestic Violence for administrators of all colleges, universities and secondary schools in Cambridge.

In City Council October 17, 1994

Order adopted