

City of Cambridge

4.

IN CITY COUNCIL

September 20, 1993

COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR WALSH

WHEREAS: The Reverend Henry Zmijewski, First Pastor of St. Hedwig's Church in East Cambridge, within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, with prophetic insight into the need of preparing the youth to assume the future adult roles in the church and community, in the year 1914 opened the St. Hedwig's Grammar School in his Parish; and

WHEREAS: The Sisters of the Holy Family were brought into the Parish to teach the students in the first through eight grades at the said St. Hedwig's Grammar School; and

WHEREAS: Over the period of forty-two years, the youths' lives that attended the said St. Hedwig's Grammar School were enriched with knowledge and enlightened to fully appreciate their precious Polish heritage; and

WHEREAS: The said St. Hedwig's Grammar School became a vital part of community life all of the years of its existence and this was achieved only through the tireless efforts and genuine sacrifices of many people both living and dead; and

WHEREAS: With much sadness and deepest regrets, the said St. Hedwig's Grammar School graduated the last class in June of 1956 and officially closed the doors of the school forever; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record in recognition of the presence, contributions and commitment of St. Hedwig's Parish in the community the Polish-Cantabrigian call home, declare Saturday, September 25, 1993 as St. Hedwig's Community Day in the City of Cambridge and urge the citizenry to be cognizant of an participate in this day; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to the organizers of the St. Hedwig's Reunion Committee.

In City Council September 20, 1993.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;
ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk

City

Councillor Toomey

4 ④ ⑤

Consent
September 20, 1918
(Zmijewski)

Whereas, the Reverend Henry Zmijewski,
First Pastor of St. Hedwig's Church in East Cambridge, within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, with prophetic insight into the need of preparing the Youth to assume the future adult roles in the Church and Community, in the year 1914 opened the St. Hedwig's Grammar School in his Parish; and

Whereas, the Sisters of the Holy Family were brought into the Parish to teach the Students in the first through eighth grades at the said St. Hedwig's Grammar School; and

Whereas, over the period of forty-two years, the Youth's lives that attended

8

were enriched with knowledge and enlightened to fully appreciate their precious Polish heritage; and

Whereas, the said St. Hedwig's Grammar School became a vital part of community life all of the years of its existence and this was achieved only through the tireless efforts and genuine sacrifices of many people - both living and dead; and

Whereas, with much sadness and deepest regrets, the ^{said} St. Hedwig's Grammar School graduated the last class in June of 1956 and officially closed the doors of the School forever; now

~~Therefore be it~~
therefore be it

the Parish - Cambridge call ~~the~~ call home Declare Saturday

September 25, 1993 as St Hedwig's
Community in the City of Cambridge Parish Day and urge the citizenry to be cognizant of participate in this day; and be it further

Resolved: That the City Clerk be & hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engraved copy of this resolution for presentation to the Organizers of the St. Hedwig's Reunion Committee

City of Cambridge

4.

IN CITY COUNCIL

September 20, 1993

COUNCILLOR TOOMEY

WHEREAS: The Reverend Henry Zmiecowski, First Pastor of St. Hedwig's Church in East Cambridge, within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, with prophetic insight into the need of preparing the youth to assume the future adult roles in the church and community, in the year 1914 opened the St. Hedwig's Grammar School in his Parish; and

WHEREAS: The Sisters of the Holy Family were brought into the Parish to teach the students in the first through eight grades at the said St. Hedwig's Grammar School; and

WHEREAS: Over the period of forty-two years, the youths' lives that attended the said St. Hedwig's Grammar School were enriched with knowledge and enlightened to fully appreciate their precious Polish heritage; and

WHEREAS: The said St. Hedwig's Grammar School became a vital part of community life all of the years of its existence and this was achieved only through the tireless efforts and genuine sacrifices of many people both living and dead; and

WHEREAS: With much sadness and deepest regrets, the said St. Hedwig's Grammar School graduated the last class in June of 1956 and officially closed the doors of the school forever; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record in recognition of the presence, contributions and commitment of St. Hedwig's Parish in the community the Polish-Cantabrigian call home, declare Saturday, September 25, 1993 as St. Hedwig's Community Day in the City of Cambridge and urge the citizenry to be cognizant of an participate in this day; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to the organizers of the St. Hedwig's Reunion Committee.

U

Sullivan Walsh R 429
Consent Order #4
Councillor Toomey RE: St. Hedwig's
Reunion

In City Council,
September 20, 1993

Order adopted