

City of Cambridge

3.

IN CITY COUNCIL

September 26, 1994

COUNCILLOR WALSH
 VICE MAYOR RUSSELL
 COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN

WHEREAS: As part of a public entity's obligations under Title II of the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA), local and state governments with fifty or more employees must conduct a self-evaluation of their programs, services and activities to ensure nondiscrimination on the basis of disability. If the self-evaluation identifies any structural changes that need to be made in government to comply with the ADA, a transition plan must be developed as a guide for implementing those changes. The transition plan should include buildings owned or leased by the public entity as well as parks, outdoor areas, and any other facilities used for municipal programs. In addition, public entities employing contractors must receive assurances that the contractors do not discriminate on the basis of disability in their facilities as well; and

WHEREAS: The purpose of the transition plan is to provide an overview of all the structural changes the public entity must make for this programs, services and activities to be in compliance with the ADA; and

WHEREAS: Public entities with responsibility or authority over streets, roads or walkways, must also include a schedule for providing curb ramps or other sloped areas where pedestrian walks cross curbs; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to inform the City Council if the self-evaluation has been conducted and to supply the Council with a copy as soon as possible and if the self-evaluation has not been conducted, then advise the City Council when it will be done.

In City Council September 26, 1994.
 Adopted by the affirmative vote of eight members.
 Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:- D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury,
 City Clerk

3

September 19, 1994

COUNCILLOR WALSH

WHEREAS: As part of a public entity's obligations under Title II of the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA), local and state governments with fifty or more employees must conduct a self-evaluation of their programs, services and activities to ensure nondiscrimination on the basis of disability. If the self-evaluation identifies any structural changes that need to be made in government buildings to comply with the ADA, a transition plan must be developed as a guide for implementing those changes. The transition plan should include buildings owned or leased by the public entity as well as parks, outdoor areas, and any other facilities used for municipal programs. In addition, public entities employing contractors must receive assurances that the contractors do not discriminate on the basis of disability in their facilities as well; and

WHEREAS: The purpose of the transition plan is to provide an overview of all the structural changes the public entity must make for its programs, services and activities to be in compliance with the ADA; and

WHEREAS: Public entities with responsibility or authority over streets, roads or walkways, must also include a schedule for providing curb ramps or other sloped areas where pedestrian walks cross curbs; now therefore be it

Page Two

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to inform the City Council if the self-evaluation has been conducted and to supply the Council with a copy as soon as possible and if the self-evaluation has not been conducted, then advise the City Council when it will be done.

City of Cambridge

3.

IN CITY COUNCIL

September 26, 1994

COUNCILLOR WALSH

WHEREAS: As part of a public entity's obligations under Title II of the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA), local and state governments with fifty or more employees must conduct a self-evaluation of their programs, services and activities to ensure nondiscrimination on the basis of disability. If the self-evaluation identifies any structural changes that need to be made in government to comply with the ADA, a transition plan must be developed as a guide for implementing those changes. The transition plan should include buildings owned or leased by the public entity as well as parks, outdoor areas, and any other facilities used for municipal programs. In addition, public entities employing contractors must receive assurances that the contractors do not discriminate on the basis of disability in their facilities as well; and

WHEREAS: The purpose of the transition plan is to provide an overview of all the structural changes the public entity must make for this programs, services and activities to be in compliance with the ADA; and

WHEREAS: Public entities with responsibility or authority over streets, roads or walkways, must also include a schedule for providing curb ramps or other sloped areas where pedestrian walks cross curbs; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to inform the City Council if the self-evaluation has been conducted and to supply the Council with a copy as soon as possible and if the self-evaluation has not been conducted, then advise the City Council when it will be done.

Russell Sullivan

Consent Order #3

CM-312

Councilor Walsh re: Public entity's obligation
under Title II of the Americans With Disabilities Act.

In City Council September 26, 1994

Order adopted.