

REVEREND GEORGE C. SCOTT

September 24, 1899 October 11, 1988

Never alone in the darkness
Always His comforting hand
Touching so gently with kindness
Helping us understand
Sharing our sorrow and sadness
Giving us faith to believe
With us in triumph and gladness
Always His blessings receive
Graciously granting forgiveness
When for our sins we atone
Walking beside us forever
Leaving us never alone

OBITUARY

George Cyril Scott was born in Barbados, West Indies in the year 1899 to James and Ruth Scott. He came to America in 1920 where he later met and married the late Edna Walker. Two daughters were born of this union, Mrs. Marie Brown (deceased) and Mrs. Rosa Haynes. He later married the late Sarah Scott, leaving several stepchildren including Elaine Richards and Robert Richards.

George Scott worked at Riverside Press for approximately forty years where he was made Supervisor. After retirement he vacationed in Barbados where he met his present wife Geraldine Scott (Thompson). George Scott joined the Western Avenue Baptist Church around 1930 where he was made a Deacon and served as Chairman for many years. He was a Sunday School Teacher and worked in any capacity in the Church as was needed. He was called to the ministry in the year 1941 where he served as Associate Minister. He also served at Cliftondale Baptist Church in Saugus under the late Rev. William Jackson and served as Interim Pastor after the death of Rev. Jackson. He then returned to his home Church Western Avenue where he served with the late Rev. H. Benton Harris. After the death of Rev. Harris, he served as Interim Pastor for one year. At Western Avenue he also served under Rev. Roscoe Cooper; Rev. Everette Frye and Rev. Robert Turner until his illness kept him confined where he never doubted or forgot his Savior Jesus Christ.

He was a loving husband and Father and leaves to mourn his wife Geraldine Scott, a daughter Rosa Haynes; Son-in-law Marcus Haynes; granddaughters Marsha Blankson; Leah Ewing; Jill Brown; Carolyn Baker; grandsons Livvy Jones and Marcus Haynes Jr; great-sons Curtis Ewing; Inana & Torik Blankson; Yolanda & Tyrone Baker and Kyle Morris. Several stepchildren including Elaine Richards & Robert Richards and several neices and nephews. He was a loving brother to Alberta Douglas of New York, the late James Scott & Ella Scott of Barbados. He leaves three sister-in-laws; a brother-in-law and many other relatives & friends.

Safely resting in the arms of Jesus, his memory will long live in those whose lives he has touched.
