MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: The Cambridge City Council was deeply saddened to learn of the death of JAMES C. WYCHE at the age of eighty after a brief illness; and

WHEREAS: JAMES C. WYCHE was a true presence in Cambridge and a key figure in the community, being one of the few truly deserving of the title "life-long Cantabrigian," having been born in Cambridge and having spent his entire life here; and

WHEREAS: JAMES C. WYCHE spent many years as a skilled and dedicated employee of the Cambridge Housing Authority; and

WHEREAS: JAMES C. WYCHE touched the life of each person who knew him, because he was a loving man with a giving spirit, a man who carried joy in tow wherever he went; and

WHEREAS: JAMES C. WYCHE was the beloved brother of the late Corrine Taylor and Anthony Wyche; and

WHEREAS: JAMES C. WYCHE has left behind a caring and devoted sister in Viola Scott, and many other beloved cousins, nieces, nephews and friends; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge has surely suffered a great loss; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby offer its deepest sympathy to the family of JAMES C. WYCHE at this their time of profound suffering; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the city Clerk be and hereby is ordered to present a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to the family of JAMES C. WYCHE as a token of our sympathy.

In City Council May 16, 1994.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
