COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: On Friday, December 18, 1998, CLSACC was proud to honor Representatives Paul C. Demakis and Anne M. Paulsen for receiving the Dr. Joseph H. Brenner Award for their strong commitment to the mission of providing free legal assistance and affordable mental health counseling services to people in need; and

WHEREAS: This has indeed been a trying year for those with low incomes as the gap between the rich and poor continues to widen, making the services of CLSACC more vital than ever; and

WHEREAS: Representative Demakis was elected to the legislature in 1994 representing Back Bay, Kenmore Square, parts of Beacon Hill, Brookline and Cambridge, is an attorney, has long been in a neighborhood activist, playing a key role in Boston Aging Concern's campaign to renovate and develop 100 rooms of affordable housing, and sits on several committees including the Public Service Committee; and

WHEREAS: Representative Demakis is a firm supporter of funding for civil legal services for people living in poverty, acted as the lead sponsor of an amendment that expanded funding for people in need in 1996 and in 1998 attempted to secure additional funding for people with disabilities who are in need of legal representation; and

WHEREAS: Representative Paulsen was elected to her Belmont-East Arlington seat in the state legislature in 1993, sits on several committees including the Criminal Justice Committee and the Human Services & Elderly Committee and is a member of the Women's Caucus Poverty Task Force and the Special Task Force on Welfare Reform; and

WHEREAS: Representative Paulsen is a champion of funding for legal assistance for victims of domestic violence, in 1996 sponsoring an amendment to increase funding for the Battered Women's Legal Assistance Project (BWLAP), and was a key player in ensuring that funds were appropriated to make BWLAP's services available statewide; and

WHEREAS: The tireless efforts of Representatives Demakis and Paulsen have been crucial to CLSACC in its efforts to provide critical services to people with low incomes; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record congratulating Representative Paul Demakis and Representative Anne Paulsen on receiving the Dr. Joseph H. Brenner Award, and offer them, as well as all the volunteer lawyers and mental health professionals who donate their time and talents, our heartfelt gratitude for the vital services they provide to the community; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to Representative Paul C. Demakis, Representative Anne M. Paulsen and the Community Legal Services And Counseling Center on behalf of the entire City Council.
