Barbara Ackermann
Mayor

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS:-

Many of our civic organizations and service clubs have joined together with the City of Cambridge to make a real effort at an ongoing attempt to beautify the City of Cambridge to its fullest potential; and

They are urging property owners and business establishments to make a concerted effort at this time and a continuing effort in the months to come not only to clean up their own properties and sidewalks but also to beautify them with flowers and greenery; and

WHEREAS:-

School children and Community Schools members and Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts plan to take an active role in their own neighborhoods by making special efforts in the cleaning of gutters and sidewalks as well as the various City parks; now therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That I, Barbara Ackermann, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, urge all of our citizens to participate in this ongoing effort and proclaim Saturday, April 28th, 1973, as

BEAUTIFICATION DAY IN CAMBRIDGE

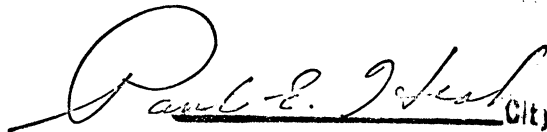

And congratulate all citizens who plan to participate in this effort, not only on this day but throughout the year.
