

Cambridge, May 2, 1940 ~~193~~

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge:

The undersigned respectfully prays that she be allowed to lease a portion of land owned by the City of Cambridge in Brattle Square on the site of the old police station, a portion on which now stands a diner.

Your Petitioner intends to use this small parcel of land to conduct a business of a dining car, as is now being operated on that spot and will pay one hundred dollars a year for the above privilege.
