COUNCILLOR WYLIE

9.

IN CITY COUNCIL

March 24, 1980

ORDERED:

That the Cable Television Task Force is requested to study and report on the steps which would be required, and a suggestive financing plan, to establish a municipally chartered non-profit television production and broadcasting station which would provide the following:

1. Daily newscast on city and regional news.
2. Access to media communication for community groups.
3. A means for citizens to express views publically and influence decision-making.
4. Opportunity for local cultural events to be viewed.
5. A means for city government to learn the public's views.
6. A means for the city to gain a voice on regional and national issues.
