

"VIVA THE HARVARD FOOTBALL TEAM"

'Scuse me!', sir, but them Harvardians from up in Harvard Square way, beat the "Crap" out of the Yale Bulldogs and the score was 37 to 20.

'Scuse me!', but the Yale's perfect Ivy bulldogs knew not of a City of Cambridge ordinance that frowns upon ~~the bulldogs~~ the presence of bulldogs within the city limits unless under leash.

on the stands Harvard supporters had reason to cheer. Eli & one found themselves in the doghouse ~~in the Harvard stadium~~ all day, as President Derek Bok played on his clarinet. It was like "Nero on the Hill playin' his violin as the yalies were a-weepin'-n-a-moanin'."

This City Council go on record congratulating the Harvard football team for their "big win" over the Yale football team. All the citizens are invited to join in the cheering whether they like Harvard or whether they don't like Harvard.
