AN ORDINANCE

in amendment of an Ordinance entitled "street".

Be it Ordained by the City Council of the City of Cambridge as follows:

Chapter 25 of the Revised Ordinances of 1892, as amended to November 8, 1899, is hereby amended as follows, viz:-

In Section 28 in the third line, by inserting after the words "house offal", the words "waste paper and other light material"; also in the same Section by inserting after the word "travellers" at the end of the first sentence, the following:-

"Whoever desires the removal of waste paper and other light material shall cause the same to be put in suitable receptables, and separate from the ashas and other house dirt, and set upon the sidewalk as provided in the case of ashes and other house dirt, and the same shall be removed under the direction of the Superintendent of Streets. No owner or occupant of land shall permit waste paper or light materials to escape upon the highway of the city.

As amended this Section will read as follows:-

Section 28.-Whoever desires the removal of ashes accumulated from the burning of materials for heating or domestic purposes only, and other house dirt, not including house offal, waste paper and other light material, shall cause the same to be put in suitable boxes or barrels and set upon the sidewalk adjoining his premises; and the superintendent of streets shall cause such removal to be made at least once in each week, on stated days for different portions of the city; but such boxes or barrels shall not be placed upon any sudewalk so as unnecessarily to prevent the convenient use thereof by travellers. Whoever desires the removal of waste paper and other light material shall cause the same to be put in suitable receptables and separate from the ashes and other house dirt, and set upon the sidewalk as provided in the case of ashes and other house dirt and the same shall be removed by the superintendent of streets. No owner or occupant of land shall permit waste paper or light material to escape upon the highways of the city. Wherever there is a convenient driveway into a yard connected with any dwelling-house the superintendent of streets may, at his convenience and upon reasonable notice, cause the city teams to be driven into such yard, and to remove therefrom the ashes and rubbish before mentioned that may be accumulated therein, at the times hereinbefore specified.

Any person having or leaving after dark and ashes, rubbish or other refuse on any street shall cause a lighted lantern to be kept thereon during the night.

REPORT.

Committee on Ordinances,

referred to the next City Council of the subject of certain amendments to the ordinances relating to the collection of taxes etc.

Dec 19. 1899

City of Cambridge

In Board of Aldermen, February 6th, 1900.

The Joint Standing Committee on Roads and Bridges, to which by an order of January 23, were referred certain recommendations of His Honor, th Mayor in his inaugural address, viz:-

1.-As to the matter of procuring "a ledge of suitable stone".

2.-As to an ordinance prohibiting the mixing of waste paper with ashes for collection by the city carts.

3.-As to permits for moving buildings.

4.-Recommendations as to an ordinance forbidding the owners of lands to allow the escape of waste paper upon the highways,

Reports,

Upon the first subject of the reference relative to a ledge, that is covered by an order of this date recommended by this Committee, that the Mayor be requested to inquire into the same, etc.

Upon the Mayor's recommendation relative to mixing waste paper with the ashes for the City carts, etc:-Your Committee submits the accompanying ordinance.

As to the granting of permits for moving buildings through the city streets, inasmuch as the same is entirely within the control of the Board of Aldermen, with the power to refuse permission in any case.

Your Committee believes that no action is necessary upon the Mayor's suggestion in reference to this subject.
