Subject Applications for Certificates of Incorporation

Attached please find two applications for location changes of businesses operating within the City of Cambridge and the City of Boston and six applications for certificates of incorporation for new businesses.

Councillor Francis Duehay has referred the above to you for a determination as to whether or not these corporations are profitable or non-profitable and subject to taxation by the City of Cambridge. Councillor Duehay further indicated that all future applications would be referred to you for the same determination. Would you kindly forward to Paul Healy, City Clerk, a response to the above prior to the Council meeting of December 12, 1977.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.
