EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
JOHN H. CORCORAN
City Manager

August 6, 1973

To the Honorable, the City Council:

I wish to advise your Honorable Body that I have this date appointed James Farrell, 43 Elm Street, Holliston, as Assistant City Manager for the City of Cambridge.

I know that all of you know Mr. Farrell from his long association with our Model Cities program, having served as Legal Counsel for Model Cities from May 1, 1970 to July of 1971 at which time he was appointed Acting Director of the Model Cities Agency. In January of 1972, Mr. Farrell was appointed Executive Director of the Model Cities Program.

I believe that Mr. Farrell will bring to this department a great many assets which will enable us to better serve the City Council and the citizens of our community. I am very pleased to make this appointment of an individual who, I know, will perform in an exemplary and outstanding manner on behalf of all of our citizens.

I should further advise your Honorable Body that I will be expecting Mr. Farrell to continue to exercise general management of the Model Cities Program in addition to his other duties and responsibilities.

Very truly yours,

John H. Corcoran
