

139 Parsons Street
Brighton, MA.
January 27, 1977

Cambridge City Council
Cambridge City Hall
Cambridge, MA.

To Councilpeople Ackerman, Duehay, Klem, and Russell:

I am strongly opposed to recombinant genetic research within the City of Cambridge. I believe that such investigation is potentially hazardous to public health and welfare, and for this reason feel that an immediate moratorium should be called on all such research.

Sincerely,

Mary Franz
Brighton

City of Cambridge

9.

S-65

Comm. from Mary Franz of Brighton opposing recombinant genetic research in Cambridge.

In City Council,

Jan. 31, 1977

1/31/77
Placed on File