Mayor Edward J. Sullivan
City Hall
Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On November 13 the Department of Public Utilities will hold a hearing on the petition of the Boston & Maine Railroad to discontinue all passenger service to Cambridge and West Cambridge.

About 20 trains to Boston and 20 trains from Boston now stop at the Cambridge Depot and several stop at West Cambridge.

It is requested that you bring this matter before the City Council so that action may be taken to have your City represented by Counsel at this hearing so that passenger train service will be preserved for the people of Cambridge who find it a quick way of getting in and out of Boston.

Very truly yours

John R. McIsaac
Chairman

City of Cambridge

IN CITY COUNCIL

TO THE HONORABLE THE CITY COUNCIL:

I transmit herewith a communication from State
Legislative Board of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen relative to train service in Cambridge and which is self-explanatory.
