PERMIT

The Cambridge City Council on April 5, 1965 granted a permit to Sheldon Cohen, doing business as "Sightseers, Inc.", to operate a sight-seeing lecture tour of the historic sites and buildings in the City of Cambridge and the right to use the public ways and roads of said city on a route approved by the City Council, said route on file in the City Clerk's Office. This permit was granted for one year, to expire on April 30, 1966 and to be renewed effective March 1, 1966.

Thomas M. McNamara,
City Clerk.

Edward A. Crane,
Mayor.

Dear Sirs and Madam:

Please consider this letter as an application for a license to conduct a sight-seeing and touring business upon the public ways and roads of the City of Cambridge. This business will be conducted by a corporation to be called "Sightseers, Inc." of which the undersigned shall be the owner of all of the capital stock and shall be the president and treasurer.

This business will, of course, be conducted in conformity with all applicable rules and regulations of the City of Cambridge.

Should anything further be required, kindly be in touch with the undersigned.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'Sheldon Cohen', written in dark ink.
