Councillor Russell:

Whereas: On Saturday, October 23, 1993, family and friends of Leo J. Boyle are gathering to celebrate the occasion of his seventieth birthday, and

Whereas: Leo was born on October 27, 1923, in Norwood, Mass, to Patrick and Elizabeth Boyle, the second youngest of their six children, Marie, Rita, Elizabeth, John, Gilbert, and of course, himself, and

Whereas: The Boyle family moved, when Leo was a young boy, to the Observatory Hill Section of Cambridge, where the training and nurturing of his parents, and the good School Sisters of Notre Dame who taught him at St. Peter's grammar school, prepared him for the exemplary Christian life, which Leo has always lived, and

Whereas: Leo who was attending Rindge Technical High School, answered the call to serve his country during World War II as a member of the U.S. Air Force, and upon his discharge, returned to school, like so many veterans of World War II, and received his diploma, and

Whereas: Leo married his high school sweetheart, Patricia Kennedy, and this union has produced six wonderful children and eleven grand children, all of whom look to Leo as a role model, and

Whereas: Leo worked for many years for the Commonwealth Gas Company, from which he retired in 1985, and now enjoys his retirement with winters in Florida, on Anna Maria Island, and summers in Marshfield, Spring and Fall find him in his native Cambridge, and

Whereas: Leo's quiet manner, kind ways, and love of his wife and family and friends are an example of a way of life that often goes unheralded, but should be treasured by all whose life Leo touches in one way or another, Now Therefore Be IT

Resolved: That this City Council go on record as congratulating Leo on the occasion of his seventieth birthday, and wishing him many many more birthdays, with good health, surrounded by his family, and further be it Resolved: that a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution be presented to Leo on behalf of the entire City Council.
