City of Cambridge.

In Board of Aldermen, Nov 23^d 1870.

The Joint Committee on Roads and Bridges, who were directed by a recent order of the City Council to consider the expediency of laying out, & constructing a street, from Garden Street, near the Botanic Gardens, to Cedar Street, at its junction with Spruce Street, & to report the probable expense thereof, would respectfully

Report

That they have visited the locality referred to, & find no public necessity, which would justify the taking of private lands for the purpose of making a street between the points named in the order
