

City of Cambridge,

In the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy four,

An Ordinance in relation to Collection of Junk,

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Cambridge, as follows,

Chapter Fourteen of the Revised Ordinances is hereby amended by striking out the second section thereof, and inserting in its place the following,

Sect. 2. No person shall without a license from the Mayor and Aldermen collect or deal in junk, old metals, rags or second hand articles; and every wagon, cart, sleigh, sled, or other vehicle used in the collection of junk, old metals, rags, or second hand articles shall have the owner's name and number of his license ^{placed} upon the outside of each side thereof, in plain legible words and figures of not less than one and one-half inches in length and so that the same may be distinctly seen.

No holder of such license shall, directly or indirectly, either purchase, or receive by way of barter or exchange, any of the articles aforesaid of any minor or apprentice, knowing, or having reason to believe him to be such; and said vehicles shall at all times be subject to the inspection of the Mayor and Aldermen, or of any person by them authorized.

Said licenses shall not be transferable;
and the person receiving a license for the collection of Junk, shall pay for the same, to the use of the City of Cambridge, a fee of Five Dollars.
