

CIVIL DEFENSE OATH

(Section 18, Chapter 639, Acts of 1950)

I, Joseph Wilson, do solemnly swear that I will support and defend the constitution of the United States and the Constitution of Massachusetts against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties on which I am about to enter.

And I further swear that I do not advocate, nor am I a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the government of the United States or of this commonwealth by force or violence; and that during such time as I am a member of the Civil Defense Agency of the City of Cambridge, Massachusetts, I will not advocate nor become a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of this commonwealth by force or violence.
