Dear Gentlemen;

We the undersigned are concerned about a serious traffic problem at the intersection of Harvard and Dana Streets. We live at this corner. In the first two weeks of July, there were at least four serious car accidents on this corner. If this situation is not tended to, more lives will be at risk. We are asking you to investigate the situation and to work to correct it. We appreciate your prompt attention.

Please contact us at 617-864-5841 with your recommendations.
