

City of Cambridge.

In Board of Aldermen, Feb. 29. 1860.

Ordered,

That this Board meet at the corner of Court and Main Streets on Thursday, the fifteenth day of March next, at three o'clock P.M., for the purpose of laying out said Court Street, from Main Street to Charles Street, and of making any alterations in the lines of said Court Street which may then be deemed best; and that notice be given to the owners of land abutting on said Court Street, between the points above mentioned, by publishing this Order in the Cambridge Chronicle, and by service of a copy of this Order upon such owners according to the Statute in such case made and provided, - that they may then and there appear and be heard. -

Attest, Justin A. Jacobs, City Clerk.

Cambridge, March 10, 1861. I hereby certify that I caused a true copy of the within Order, by me attested, to be published in the Cambridge Chronicle on the third instant, and again this day, and that I pasted a like copy on the outer door of the City Hall
on the seventh instant.

Justin A. Jacobs, City Clerk.

Cambridge, March 7, 1861. I hereby certify that I this day delivered true copies of the within Order, attested by the City Clerk, to Thomas P. Larned, Elijah
H. Lusk, Josiah Burdett, Newell Bent, and Harriet Wares, - to each one copy in hand, - and on the same day left like copies at the last and usual places of abode of Warren O. Bright and Edwin Brooks, directed to them respectively.

William Twist, Constable of Cambridge

Cambridge, March 11, 1861. I hereby certify that I
this day delivered a true copy of the within Order,
attested by the City Clerk, to Walter Fisher, in hand, and left like copies at the last and usual places of abode of Susan Maria Porter and Henry Potter, directed to them respectively.

Joseph Lundeigan Constable

Cambridge, March 11, 1864. I hereby certify that I this day delivered two copies of the foregoing Order, attested by the City Clerk, to Charles W. Munroe, Jane C. Langens, and Mary Ann Powell, to each one copy in hand, and left with said Charles W. Munroe a like copy directed to Edmund Munroe, and left like copies at the last and usual places of abode of William Mullen and Alexander Hughes, directed to them respectively.

John C. Miller, Constable of Cambridge
