

Cambridge, June 29, 1874.

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge.

The undersigned respectfully pray that Watson Street may be laid out across the Nuttery line thereby to commence at a point on Brookline Street two feet south of the present corner of Watson and Brookline Streets, and to run in a straight line by the back building of Mr. Turnbull to Pearl Street; and we, the undersigned hereby agree that if said Nuttery line shall be so laid out, we will claim no damages from the City in the matter of said Watson Street.
