

Cambridge, May 6. 1871.

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge.

The undersigned respectfully ~~prays~~ represents that the sum awarded her for the removal of her wall on Dottle Street - is less than any estimate or proposal which she can obtain for doing the work. She is extremely desirous to make said removal at once, to conform with the new lines of her neighbors, and therefore prays that the Committee on Roads and Bridges may be authorized to examine the premises, and that such other action may be taken as may seem just and proper.
