COUNCILLOR WALSH
MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: Neighborhood organizations represent the heart of our country's political life and are for many citizens the first opportunity to have a voice in determining the policies of their communities; and

WHEREAS: A recent election of officers of the North Cambridge Stabilization Committee saw the election to leadership positions of two North Cambridge residents who had not previously held elected office; and

WHEREAS: The civic life of a city is the healthier (even if that means the more lively and diverse of opinion) when the greatest number of citizens are inspired to be involved; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council offer its congratulations to the newly elected officers of the North Cambridge Stabilization Committee: Chair, Megan Hanna, (new to public life) Vice Chairs: Bill O'Hearn, (new to public life), Dorothy Giacobbe, Michael Brandon, and Secretary, Joe Joseph.
