

ROBERT J. MELLIDGE,
ESQUYRE BUILDING,
BOSTON.

July 7. 1894

Walter W. Pike, Esq
City Clerk.

Dear Sir

I have recently received a pamphlet, bearing your signature, in relation to "laying out of Wyeth & other streets", in which is a notice of award to Robert J. Mellidge & Daniel W. Job, Jr. for land on Lambert Avenue. This is evidently a clerical error, which may or may not be of consequence. The property stood in name of Daniel W. Job & Robert J. Mellidge, Trustees, of whom I am survivor. I am unable to find that there is such a person as Daniel W. Job, Jr.

Yours truly

Robt. J. Mellidge

CITY * OF * CAMBRIDGE.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN,

April 10. 1894.

ORDERED.

That the Superintendent of Public Buildings be authorized to purchase the vacant lot of land, for a school house, on the southerly side of Vine Street, between Fourth and Fifth Streets, said lot having a frontage of 134 feet on Vine Street, and a depth of about 100 feet, and said lot contain about 13400 square feet. The cost of said lot not to exceed the sum of thirty three cents per square foot, the same to be charged to the appropriation for School house and Land in Ward Three.

Referred to the Committee on Finance
Sent down for concurrence
Attest Walter R. Pitts City Clerk

In Common Council, April 10. 1894.

During the passage of a motion to "refer back to the Committee on Public Instruction, with instructions to select another site", laid on the table.

April 17. 1894. - ~~W. R. Pitts~~ - concurred
Attest: Edward Prandoni, Clerk

#2

Order

31

for the purchase of a lot of land and vine sheets,
for a school house..

Apr 10. 1878