

City of Cambridge

22.

IN CITY COUNCIL

June 14, 1993

VICE MAYOR CYR
COUNCILLOR WOLF

WHEREAS: The Secretary of State has ruled that cities and towns can adopt door-to-door voter registration to increase the number of registered voters and to stimulate increased voter participation; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to consult with the Election Commission with the view in mind of adopting door-to-door voter registration procedures; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to report back to the City Council on this matter by the last Council meeting in June.

NO ACTION TAKEN

image

C/gj

Whereas: The Secretary of State has ruled that cities and towns can adopt door to door vote registration to increase the number of registered voters and to stimulate increased voter participation; therefore be it

Ordered: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to consult with the Election Commission to determine the feasibility of with the view in mind of adopting a door-to-door voter registration procedure; and be it further

Order: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to report back to the City Council on this matter by the last Council meeting in June

CITY OF BOSTON

IN CITY COUNCIL

ORDER OF COUNCILOR BRUCE C. BOLLING

Whereas: The Secretary of State has ruled that cities and towns can adopt door to door registration to increase the number of registered voters and to stimulate increased voter participation.

Whereas: The City of Boston presently has 250,000 registered voters and approximately 205,802 eligible unregistered voters;

Whereas: The City Council urges the Election Commission to adopt a door-to-door voter registration campaign; Therefore Be It

ORDERED: That the City of Boston Election Department through the Election Commission, resolve that the Commission adopt door-to-door voter registration.

City of Cambridge

22.

IN CITY COUNCIL

June 14, 1993

VICE MAYOR CYR

WHEREAS: The Secretary of State has ruled that cities and towns can adopt door-to-door voter registration to increase the number of registered voters and to stimulate increased voter participation; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to consult with the Election Commission with the view in mind of adopting door-to-door voter registration procedures; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to report back to the City Council on this matter by the last Council meeting in June.

Wally CONSENT ORDER #22

CM 173

Vice Mayor Cyr re: Door to Door voter registration.

In City Council,

June 14, 1993

W. Antonio Vataken